PM540 - HR and Leadership Skills

HR management can be defined as the effective use of team members in an organization through the management of people-related activities. At its core, HRM involves not just leadership, but values, employment planning, recruitment, training, compensation, performance appraisal, and many other topics. Mastering these skills is a critical competency for all ministry leaders, no matter the size of the organization!

Take this course to learn the basic principles and acquire the skills of human resource management.
